

Language Engagement Scholar Transcript Notation

Application Form

Completed application must be submitted to the chair of the appropriate language department by May 1 of the senior year. For languages not taught in a department, please submit the application to the Dean of Strategic and Global Initiatives by bringing it to the Walter Commons for Global Study and Engagement (Blaustein Humanities first floor).

Name: _____

Major: _____

Class Year: _____

To receive the distinction of the “Language Engagement Scholar” transcript notation, advanced level proficiency is required in one language other than English. Proficiency is demonstrated by completing two 4-credit courses at the appropriate level in the same language with a grade of B (3.0) or higher (see guidelines for each language). Please list the courses that you completed to fulfill this requirement.

Course: _____ Semester completed: _____

Institution where course was taken: _____

Grade received in course: _____

Course: _____ Semester completed*: _____

Institution where course was taken: _____

Grade received in course*: _____

(*course may be in progress in spring semester of senior year)

The “Language Engagement Scholar” designation also requires the application of language skills in a global or local context. Examples of these applications can be found on the website. In a brief essay of no more than 200 words, please describe the experiences in which you applied your language skills.